SUNDAY 3rd DECEMBER 2017

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

YEAR B

Recently we have been presented, through the advertising media, with what an increasingly materialistic world regards as the 'essentials' for the 'perfect' celebration of Christmas: decorations, presents, lights, food and, of course, alcohol! As we begin Advent, we are clearly reminded of the true purpose of Christ-Mas, the Feast of Christ's Birth, as well as of the infinitely higher purpose for which God first created us then redeemed us, namely eternal possession of Him in Heaven; indeed a far higher purpose ever imaginable than that of collecting mere earthly possessions.

Through the Entrance Antiphon (cf Psalm 24:1-3) we affirm our hope in the ultimate Joy which awaits us if we persevere in love of and trust in God. Isaiah (63:16-17; 64:1, 3-8) recalls, from Israel's history, the consequences of choosing to live in opposition to God, imagining that one 'knows better' than one's Creator; a disastrous separation which can only be remedied by repentance and conversion. Advent embodies a call to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The vital acknowledgement by a sinner of the urgent need to be reconciled with God is highlighted in the Response to the Psalm (Psalm 79: 2-3, 15-16, 18-19 response v 4). Saint Paul (1 Corinthians 1:3-9) encourages us, who eagerly await Christ's Second Coming at the end of time, to persevere in fidelity to Our Lord, thereby keeping us, '...steady and without blame until the last day...' Through the Alleluia verse (Psalm 84:8) we beg for God's limitless, '...mercy...and...saving help', ours for the asking!

We are brought face to face with something which material success can blind us to, as it did the man who rejoiced in earthly riches, only to die suddenly, appearing unprepared, before his Heavenly Judge. The Gospel (Mark 13:33-37) compels us to take a long hard look at ourselves, warning us of the unpredictability of death which could take us completely by surprise; our priorities in this finite world will determine our Eternity and, because God loves us and knows our Fallen Nature, He continually warns of the danger of the 'Eat, drink and be merry!' philosophy of life.

We must certainly not develop a gloomy, Scrooge-like attitude towards the celebration of this momentous Birth but, rather, we are directed towards true Joy; our eventual celebration of Christmas is intended to lift our Souls upwards, towards God; to look beyond the here-and-now, joining in the Glorias of the Angels and the down-to-earth wonder of the Shepherds and Kings. Christmas Cheer, to be genuine, must be rooted in the Joy of knowing that the Babe in the manger, having grown to adulthood, established the Church, Died, and Risen, having defeated death, has Ascended to His Father, going ahead of us to help us on towards the Ultimate Celebration of Heaven!

Next Friday, 8th December, we celebrate a pivotal moment in the history of Salvation, The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. This Dogma, defined by Pope Pius IX in 1854, proclaims the Truth that, of all humans created, Mary, alone, was kept free from Original Sin, preventing it from touching, soiling and weakening her Soul. She alone was (and ever remained) in the State of Grace from that first instant of her life in the womb of her Mother, Saint Anne. From then and, indeed, throughout her life on Earth, Mary co-operated willingly and perfectly with God's Grace. A measure of the humility required to accept with Faith this, perhaps challenging Truth, lies in its having been revealed in 1858 to Saint Bernadette Soubirous, then an illiterate, poverty-stricken French peasant girl, by Our Blessed Lady herself, who declared, when asked to reveal her identity "Que soy era Immaculada Conception", which of course in Bernadette's language of Bigourdane means "I am the Immaculate Conception." ## A SERIOUS THREAT TO CATHOLIC EDUCATION

Do you support Catholic schools, and the right of Catholics to send their children to those schools? Archbishop Peter Smith writes:

“We need you to make your voice heard. The government is making a critical decision on whether to overturn the admissions cap which prevents Catholic schools from allowing all Catholic pupils to attend. This cap was introduced by the Coalition Government in 2010. The present Government have acknowledged that this policy discriminates against Catholics and indeed they promised to abandon it. Now we most urgently need you to tell them that they must not perform a U-turn on that public promise they made to Catholics. Please visit <http://catholicnews.org.uk> or search for Catholic Education in your search engine. There you will be able to write to the Government and urge them to drop their policy which bans new Catholic Schools. If you don't have a pc, please write to the Secretary of State for Education, The Right Hon Justine Greening MP directly instead at: Sanctuary Buildings, 20 Great Smith St, Westminster, London SW1P 3BT . Thankyou.”

BAPTISM PREPARATION COURSES 2018 AND ARRANGING BAPTISM

The first course is expected to be run on both Saturdays 13th and 20th January 2018. To join these sessions, and/or to book a date for your child's Baptism, please complete a Baptism Details Form, available from the Church porch, and hand this in to the parish office. Further sessions are planned for April and July 2018.
