SUNDAY 29th APRIL 2018

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

YEAR B

During the past week, we have been presented with two examples of the consequences of promoting Truth and publicly opposing evil. St. George, nowadays honoured as the Patron Saint of England, was probably a Roman soldier who was martyred because he refused to renounce his Catholic Faith during a persecution. He is presented in legend as a soldier who slew a dragon to which had been made human sacrifices. In a way he could stand for all who live their Faith and strive to resist the temptations of Satan.

On Wednesday we celebrated Saint Mark, another Martyr, traditionally held to have been an Evangelist (i.e. author of one of the Gospels), a disciple of Saint Peter, cousin of Barnabas and, at one time, a companion of Saint Paul in his missionary journey, spreading the Good News. There has been much scholarly debate on this Saint.

The Entrance Antiphon (cf Psalm 97:1-2) expresses joy: Our Lord has very clearly shown us the way forward and, indeed, saved us and, throughout life, we must seek and cooperate with Grace so that we may attain Eternal Salvation.

In the First Reading (Acts 9:26-31) we hear of the newly converted Saint Paul's meeting with the, understandably wary Disciples. Paul might be thought of as a type of Saint George, fearless unto death in his living and preaching the often 'unpalatable' and challenging Truth. We hear how, having declared himself a follower of Christ, Paul had immediately faced strong and hostile opposition. This fact, as well as the account of his Conversion, was enough to convince the Disciples that he (formerly named Saul) was indeed a worthy ally. Saints George, Mark and Paul, Martyrs all, are outstanding role models for us. We shall probably never be called to 'lay our life on the line' but, as we hear constantly through the media, many of our brothers and Sisters are still martyred for their fidelity to God. Christians, even here in England, Mary's Dowry, can experience concerted opposition, even, at times, backed by law. Sometimes this may be through ignorance and misunderstanding, but sometimes, sadly, it is because our hearers know, 'deep down', that we are right. However tough a time we may have as a Christians, we can take heart, as Saint Paul did, that God will ultimately prevail over opposition to His Truth.

The Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 21:26-28, 30-32 response v26) again looks to the centrality of God in our lives and the ongoing and irresistible spread of Faith, Truth and Justice, as more are gathered into the one true fold.

Saint John, in the Second reading (1 Jn. 3:18-24) emphasises the inescapable fact that belief in Jesus cannot be merely verbal assent but, if it is to be credible to all, it must influence our relations with and our treatment of others. As the maxim states, 'actions speak louder than words'. Our conscience, formed by the Teachings of the Church, will help us to remain faithful and confident in our loving obedience to God's Laws, whatever obstacles may be placed in our path. The Commandments are our sure Rule of Life, our 'Route-Map'. This fruitful closeness to our Father is echoed in the Alleluia Verse (John 15:4-5) and underlined later on in the Communion Antiphon (cf John 15:1-5).

The Gospel (Jn. 15:1-8) presents us with the beautiful discourse of Jesus on our essential and close, therefore fruitful, union with Him; only by growing on the Vine can Branches flourish and bear fruit. Our Lord delivers the stark warning that the roads to Heaven and Hell, to our Eternity, are our choice. We are called to oppose the materialism and the so-called 'modern moral standards' so widely and forcefully presented as 'cool' and to be constantly aware that, however much the 'majority' may appear to prevail, every single person created will appear before God's Judgement Seat. Be prepared to suffer opposition now in order to, one day, hear the words'... Well done, Good and Faithful Servant...' (Matthew 25:21, 23) from our Loving Father.

A HIGHLY IMPORTANT NOTICE FROM FATHER DEO ABOUT THE NEW GENERAL DATA PROTECTION LEGISLATION

New General Data Protection Legislation comes into force on Friday 25th May 2018. This will affect us all. We are now required to both ensure and indeed demonstrate that we know everybody who has access to the vast amount of personal information we hold in the parish, what information they hold, and in which format/s. I know that a great number of you currently volunteer for the parish, or may have done so in the past, and therefore you may well have some personal information at your home or office, in a file and/or on a PC, phone, laptop or other device. Please could you let either me or the Parish Office know if this applies to you, so that I can let you know what actions you will need to take going forward. The Archbishop is encouraging all of us to help implement these changes, and I thank you in advance for your co-operation. I cannot stress strongly enough the important impact which this new legislation will have upon the parish, and I am mindful of the most severe penalties which may be imposed for non compliance. Please therefore do come forward, whether or not you think you may be affected.

MARCH FOR LIFE - SATURDAY 5TH MAY 2018

It is expected that the Sacrament of Confession will be available in the morning. Then in the afternoon, those who are able are invited to process to Parliament Square, where prominent pro life speakers will give keynote speeches.

Please consider attending this event, details of which may be found on posters in porch areas.
