SUNDAY 3rd JUNE 2018

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

YEAR B

Last week, we celebrated the Three Divine persons in the One God, i.e. the Most Holy Trinity. Today we celebrate the Sacrament to which all the other Sacraments point the way, Holy Communion itself. Each time we receive Communion, we take to ourselves that same Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity which Christ first gave to His Apostles at the Last Supper and which, as our Risen Lord, He longs, every day, to give to us. This is not to be regarded as a reward for being good, but to strengthen us in our resolve to be good Catholics.

One of the descriptions of the Mass is ‘...a public act of worship...’ Another public proof of our adherence to the Fullness of the Faith is how we ‘...love one another...’ Many of us will recall, from our own childhood, that a prominent part of the celebration of Corpus Christi was a public procession around the neighbourhood of our church. Father, accompanied by the Parish First Communicants, their Families and other Parishioners, carried the Blessed Sacrament in the Monstrance, taking Our Lord out to those of all Faiths and none. This very ‘high-profile’ demonstration of our love for and devotion to the Bread of Life is taking place, after a gap of many years, in our Parish today.

Thanks to the present English translation of the text of the Mass, we can acknowledge, just before receiving Communion, our total unworthiness to have God come into our body and soul. We repeat the words of the Roman Centurion, declaring, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the Word and my soul shall be healed.” We not only admit to our fallen human nature, but we proclaim our firm belief that Christ can, in His Goodness, providing that we are truly sorry, drive out the sins which distance (and, sometimes) completely separate us from Him.

It is because Jesus, God the Son, actually comes to each of us personally that the Church insists upon our being in the State of Grace, i.e. free from Mortal Sin, requiring us to confess any such sins of which we are aware before approaching the Altar. She requires us, also, under normal circumstances, to fast for one hour (water and medicines are the only exceptions) before receiving Communion. Hopefully, realising the importance of the Food of our Souls, this is no big deal. Decades ago, the fast lasted from Midnight on Saturday; it was then reduced to three hours by Pope Pius XII in 1957, then to the present one hour by Pope Paul VI in 1964.

You might like to read the stories of Saint Tarcisius (<http://www.ewtn.com/library/MARY/TARCIS.htm>) and Little Li (<http://www.myfirstholychommunion.com/portfolio-view/little-li/>), two children who gave their lives as Martyrs for love of the Holy Eucharist. They will inspire you and your children! Why not see how many more Saints of the Eucharist you can discover! If ever one goes unwillingly to Mass and Communion, one will do well to recall that in various parts of the world, our Brothers and Sisters are still risking their lives for this Privilege. Our Procession today will be a clear sign of our gratitude for the freedom we enjoy to practise our Faith in this country, and a sign of Solidarity with our persecuted Brothers and Sisters. Have a Holy and Happy Solemnity!

Thank you for your generosity

The collection for Sunday 27th May 2018 came to £1979.00 (£1279.00 (baskets) & £700.00 (Standing Orders)).

COFFEE MORNING NEXT SUNDAY WITH THE SVP

In the hall after the 8.30am & 10.00am Masses. Do come along and give your support, enjoying teas, coffees and delicious home made cakes. As ever, the SVP will be raising money to enable young people in need to have a short break at a Young Vincentians holiday camp. Most of us are lucky enough to be able to have a holiday away from home, but for many this just is not possible. Please come along and help to make it a great success.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION - THIS AFTERNOON

Our first Corpus Christi Procession for many years, takes place this afternoon. This will be our first ever public procession, away from the church itself. Please gather at the entrance to Norbury Park, beside the old police station, prepared to set off at 2pm. We intend to walk up the pathway towards Harefield Road, where we shall hold Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. All parish groups are encouraged to attend; those with banners are asked to bring them along if at all possible. Free parking is usually available in the nearby carpark off Granville Gardens. Please note that the usual 4pm Benediction in the church itself will not be taking place this afternoon.

CONFIRMATION 2018

On Sunday 20th May, Pentecost Sunday, Bishop Patrick Lynch visited our parish to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on 33 parishioners. The Mass was a wonderful and uplifting occasion. Bishop Pat commented on how well all the candidates took part and how clearly they made their responses. He was well aware of and indeed paid tribute to the thorough preparation given to our candidates by our dedicated catechists.

Congratulations and thanks go to all the newly confirmed, their families and their sponsors. Special thanks goes to the team of catechists, who prepared the group over several months, and to the priests and altar servers who attended the Confirmations.

Please remember the newly Confirmed in your prayers that, filled with the Holy Spirit, they may go forth and use their newly acquired Gifts in the service of the Lord.

CTS

This year marks the 150th Anniversary year of the CTS, providing those of the Catholic faith, and indeed those not, with concise information on the many aspects of what we believe as Catholics. Please take a look in our well stocked rack, just outside the Repository. Pamphlets are designed to fit easily into your pocket or bag.

CTS publications are now available for your hand held e-book devices. See: <http://www.ctsbooks.org/ebooks>

Payment for pamphlets obtained from the rack should be put into the lower wall box to the left, when facing the main door, which is clearly marked "PAPERS & CTS".

Please note that the wall box to the right is has been allocated to your donations towards flowers for the church.

PROTOCOL FOR RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

Would those who sit in both the Blessed Sacrament Chapel and Our Lady's Chapel please proceed to the rear of the church and then approach the sanctuary to receive Holy Communion by way of the centre aisle. This method is to allow for a smoother process and reduce the confusion which can sometimes occur at this most solemn point in the Mass.
